MRS. PARHAY

From Dr. Barton, of New Orleans.

SNOXYILLE, TENE., June 28th, 1866.

MRS. C MULLER, Opticiss.—Dear Sir: The glasses you have prepared for use exceed in distinctness and brilliancy of vision any I have every motion of the eye, is invaluable, as it prevents fall the to the organ, and does not impair vision. The beautiful transparency of the glass, with its great hardness, gives a durability which is invaluable to those having a constant demand for them.

These improvements are recommendations for their use highly meriting public pairwings.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
G. H. BARTON, M. D., of N. O.

Prom Sami. R. Rodgers, Senator from Anox and Roans counties, Tenneties.

MR. C. MCLLER—Sir: I take great sleasure in stating the public that I am using rone improved Speciacies with perfect satisfaction, both by daylight and candisinght. I consider them a valuable improvement.

SAM. R. RODGERS.

The Speciacle Lens in common use, forme double convex, have but one focus, and that being to the centre, admits of a perfect vision only through the centre. Now as
